

As a Communicator and Writer, I will learn to...

- Write a chronological recount of a memorable experience.
- Write a diary entry for the Great Fire of London.
- To write a recount of our trip to Darwen Tower.
- To use capital letters, finger spaces and full stops in my sentences.
- To use intonation and expression when orally retelling a story or recount.

On my Faith Journey, I will learn...

- To understand the difference between holidays and Holy days and name special Holy days.
- As a Catholic, I will learn to say sorry and accept that saying sorry is asking for forgiveness.
- I will learn to love my neighbours and treat them respectfully.
- I will learn about World Faith and Islam.

As a Mathematician, I will learn to...

- Practice written methods
- Practice 2, 5, 10 times tables.
- Recognise the value of each digit in a 2 digit number.
- Find missing numbers in a calculation.
- Read scales
- Interpret charts and graphs
- Learn about fractions and find half and a quarter of a given amount.
- Recognise coins, notes and find total and give change.
- Use positional language to describe location forwards, backwards, left, right, above, below and use ordinal numbers.

Year 1
Summer
Term

As a part of my home learning I will...

- Learn my weekly spellings
- Learn my tables
- Read every night
- Complete my additional homework

As a Scientist, I will learn to...

- Identify and name a variety of common wild and garden plants including deciduous and evergreen trees.
- I will identify and describe the basic structure of a variety of common flowering plants, including trees.

As a good healthy citizen I will...

- Respect other people.
- Love and care for others
- Share and be kind to others

As a Geographer, I will learn to...

- Identify weather patterns in the UK and a contrasting country.
- Study seasonal changes and daily weather patterns and discuss how these impact our daily lives and local area.
- Name and locate the countries of the UK and their capital cities.
- Name landmarks and characteristics and make simple comparisons between different cities.

As a Sportsperson, I will learn to...

- Become an effective team member when playing team games.
- Lead a team effectively in games.
- Plan, perform and repeat sequences.
- Move in a clear, fluent and expressive manner.
- Travel in a variety of ways (eg: flight) by transferring weight to generate power in movement.
- Understand centre and gravity and use this to create interesting body shapes.

As a Musician, I will learn to...

- Learn to play the glockenspiel, xylophone and other percussion instruments using key notes.
- Perform for the school and parents.
- Identify pitch, pulse and rhythm in songs that I sing.
- Use music as way of supporting my well-being.

As a Historian, I will learn to...

- Research the Great Fire of London and make a timeline of events.
- Learn about Samuel Pepys and compare his diary entry to other diary entries.
- Compare the changes over time and how the safety of buildings has changed.

As a Design Technologist, I will learn to...

- Use tools that will help me to chop, slice, peel and mash.
- Use design criteria to create a sandwich and evaluate my designs and say how I could improve them.

As a Computer Scientist, I will learn to...

- Group data and analyse data.
- Give commands and instructions to move a Sprite.
- Use a programming tool and compare programming tools.

As an Artist, I will learn to....

- Study a range of photographs and drawings of the Pop Artist James Rizzi.
- Create images using Primary and Secondary colours and shapes in my work.
- Make 2D images using cardboard and recyclable materials to create a street view image in the style of James Rizzi.